These will be dependent on your specific requirements. Please contact me for a separate quotation.

GIFT VOUCHERS

Gift Vouchers are available to cover the full cost of any commission. Please select from the options shown above.

Payment

You do not have to pay for your portrait until you are happy. When it is finished I will e-mail or post a photograph to you for approval.

HOW TO PAY

My preferred method of payment is through PayPal using their Email payments option. This allows you to pay on line using a credit card, bank account or PayPal balance. Once you are completely happy with your portrait I will send you a PayPal invoice via email. You simply click a link in the email to make payment.

I also accept payment by Cheque- made payable to J H Illustrations.

In all cases portraits are dispatched on receipt of full payment.

Delivery

Your portrait will be securely packaged to avoid any transit damage in the post. UK parcels will be delivered using second class recorded delivery service. Overseas Parcels will be going by Airsure. International Airsure rates will be quoted for separately.

Gift Vouchers

A gift voucher is a good alternative if you have left little time to commission a portrait or I am not able to meet your deadline due to work load.

Whatever the reason it makes a truly unique gift and is perfect for Christmas, anniversaries or birthdays.

A voucher is available to purchase to the amount of your order to cover the full cost of a portrait. (Please refer to prices.)

A special personal message can be added to make it rather more special. Just email me with your personalised message..

A voucher will be valid for 6 months from the date of issue but can be extended to suit you.

Below is an example of how your gift voucher will look.
